Naples, January 6.

PUBLICK Prayers were put up laſt Week in all the Churches in this City, for three Days ſucceſſively, on Account of the conſtant Rains and repeated Shocks of an Earthquake, which have been felt within theſe few Days paſt. The King has nominated M. Paci to ſucceed M. Guglielmini, in the Biſhoprick of Tropea, which he lately renounced, on Condition of reſerving to himſelf a Penſion of 1000 Ducats per Annum. A few Days ago arrived in this City from Trieſte, Part of the Baggage and Domeſticks of Prince Eſterhaſi, conſiſting of Twenty-five Waggons, forty Horſes, and three Coaches; and Yeſterday ſeveral Perſons of Diſtinction ſet out from hence to meet that Prince, who is coming to reſide at this Court in Quality of Ambaſſador from their Imperial Majeſties. On Friday laſt, being New Year's Day, their Majeſties received the Compliments of the Nobility, Foreign Miniſters, and other Perſons of Diſtinction, on that Occaſion. The Queen is entered into the ninth Month of her Pregnancy, and is in perfect Health; and Preparations for Publick Rejoycings are making at the Palace againſt her Majeſty's Lying-in, which is almoſt daily expected.

Petersbourg, Jan. 8. M. de Groſs, her Imperial Majeſty's late Miniſter to the King of Pruſſia, arrived here on the 2d Inſtant from Berlin, and on the 5th was declared an actual Privy Councillor. The Small-Pox rages very much in this City; two Sons of the Prince of Holſtein Beck, Lieutenant General in the Service of this Empire, are dead of it, and a third is dangerouſly ill. On the 29th paſt, being the Empreſs's Birth-Day, the ſame was celebrated here with great Magnificence. In the Morning her Imperial Majeſty received the Compliments of the Nobility, Foreign Miniſters, General Officers, and all the Lords and Ladies of the Court; after which ſhe went with a numerous Retinue to the Royal Chappel in the Palace, where ſhe aſſiſted at Divine Service, during which, three Diſcharges were made of the Cannon of the Admiralty and the Fortreſſes; and at Night there was a Supper and Ball at Court.

Florence, Jan. 8. Laſt Week the News of the Empreſs Dowager's Death arrived here, and Yeſterday the Emperor's Orders, with Regard to that Event, were read in Council, by which the Members of the Regency, the Chamberlains, and all who belong to his Court here, are ordered to go into Mourning for nine Months. The firſt three they are directed to wear black Cloth with the Pile raiſed like Ratteen, and all other Signs of the deepeſt Mourning for their Perſons only. None but the Emperor's Livery Servants are to be put into Mourning. The Diverſions of the Carnaval are permitted to go on, excluſive of Masking. On the 24th paſt the Emperor's Letters Patent were read with the uſual Military Formality, in Favour of Count de la Tour, who is promoted to the Rank of Colonel of the Lorrain Regiment of Foot Guards in Garriſon in this City, in the Room of Count Givrecourt, deceaſed. M. de Ruis, Major, ſucceeds Count de la Tour in the Poſt of Lieutenant Colonel, and M. Bretton, the firſt Captain, ſucceeds as Major of the ſaid Regiment. On the 31ſt the Emperor's Pleaſure was publiſhed in Council, granting to Senator Gaetani and M. Libri, the Reduction of half the Term preſcribed in the Sentence for their Confinement at Volterra, by which they are at Liberty to dwell in any other Places of Tuſcany, forbidding them only to approach within ſix Miles of the City of Florence. On the 3d Inſtant Colonel Mill ſet out from hence on his Journey to Vienna.

Rome, Jan. 9. Cardinal Spinelli, the Archbiſhop of Naples, has renounced to the Pope that Archbiſhoprick, on Account, it is ſaid, of his Indiſpoſition. On the 19th paſt Prince Eſterhaſi and his Lady arrived in this City from Venice, on their Journey to Naples. They were received at ſome Diſtance from the City by the Cardinals Mellini and Alexander Albani, and complimented by divers Perſons of Diſtinction, Subjects and Dependants of the Court of Vienna. They lodge at the Tuſcan Palace in in Piazza Madama, and on the 21ſt they were entertained at Dinner by Cardinal Mellini; on the 23d by the French Ambaſſador; and on the 27th, 28th, 29th and 30th, by the Cardinals Alexander Albani, Portocarrero, Cavalchini, and Orſini. That Prince has ſince left this City with a numerous Retinue, on his Journey to Naples. On the 21ſt Cardinal Mellini received a Courier from Vienna, relating to the Affair of Aquileja; whereupon, on the 22d he had an Audience of the Pope; on which Account on the 23d, Cardinal Guerini diſpatched a Courier to Venice; and it is ſaid, that the Diſagreements relating to that Affair are upon the Point of being reconciled. The Pope has cauſed a Bull to be publiſhed, granting a Jubilee for a Fortnight for thoſe who have not been at Rome, having directed all the Archbiſhops and Biſhops to notify the ſame, to the End that it may be obſerved in all Catholick Countries.

Stockholm, Jan. 14. Although the King received the Compliments on the New Year in his own Apartment, on Account of the Weather's being exceſſive Cold, yet his Majeſty continues to enjoy as good a State of Health, as he has done for ſome Months paſt.

Copenhagen, Jan. 16. The King has appointed M. Fleſſa, Prevoſt of Sonderbourg, to be Superintendant of the Counties of Oldenbourg and Delmenhorſt in Germany. The violent Tempeſts we have had on theſe Coaſts for this Fortnight paſt, have done a Deal of Damage amongſt the Shipping, ſeveral of which have been drove on Shore.

Turin, Jan. 16. On the 9th Inſtant the Court went into Mourning for ſix Weeks, on Occaſion of the Death of the Empreſs Dowager. On the 7th arrived here the Marqueſs de l'Hopital, who has reſided at the Court of Naples for theſe ten Years paſt, in Quality of Ambaſſador from his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty, and Yeſterday he continued his Journey for Paris, in order to take Poſſeſſion of a conſiderable Employment, which the King his Maſter has lately conferred on him.

Vienna, Jan. 16. Prince Waldeck, who arrived here on Monday laſt, was introduced to their Imperial Majeſties on Wedneſday, and was very graciouſly received. Her Imperial Majeſty, who is now entred into the eighth Month of her Pregnancy, continues to enjoy a good State of Health; and 'tis ſaid their Imperial Majeſties Journey to Presbourg, in order to be preſent at the General Diet of the Empire, will certainly take Place ſoon after the Empreſs's Recovery from her Lying-in.

Vienna, Jan. 19. Frequent Conferences are held at Court on the interior Affairs of the Empire, as well as on thoſe of the North. The Count de Hautefort, the French Ambaſſador at this Court, having received Advice by a Courier from Paris, of his having been created a Knight of the Order of the Holy Ghoſt, has been complimented thereupon by ſeveral of the Nobility and Foreign Min[illegible]s.

Dreſden, Jan. 19. The King has made a Preſent to Count Bruhl, his Prime Miniſter, of a conſiderable Tract of Land, during his Life; in Return for which, that Miniſter has ſurrendered up to his Majeſty his fine Summer Palace at Frederickſtadt. A few Days ago eight young Gentlemen were drowned in the River Elbe, as they were diverting themſelves in Sledges upon the Ice, which broke and let them in.

Munich, Jan. 20. The Cardinal Biſhop of Liege, who was for ſeveral Days extremely ill, is now much better, and is even ſaid to be out of Danger.

Berlin, Jan. 23. M. Wahrendorff, Miniſter from this Court to that of Ruſſia, arrived here on the 21ſt Inſtant from Petersbourg.

Count Viry arrived here on Monday laſt from Turin, and this Day he preſented to the Preſident of the Aſſembly of the States General his Credential Letters, as Envoy Extraordinary from his Sardinian Majeſty to their High Mightineſſes. The Prince Stadtholder has appointed M. Auguſtus Martfelt to be Colonel of a Regiment of Artillery.
